Contents of Volume 37

Number 1 – March 1991

Research papers

Software filter for detecting spikes superimposed on a fluctuating baseline
F. Marion-Poll and T.R. Tobin (France, U.S.A.) 1

Application of a fluorometric method to measure glutamate release from single retinal photoreceptors
G.S. Ayoub and D.R. Copenhagen (U.S.A.) 7

Low access resistance perforated patch recordings using amphotericin B
J. Rae, K. Cooper, P. Gates and M. Watsky (U.S.A.) 15

Age-related features of the resting pattern-reversal visual evoked response using the dipole localization method and cortical imaging technique
R.D. Sidman, D.J. Major, M.R. Ford, G.G. Ramsey and C. Schlichting (U.S.A.) 27

Immunohistochemical detection of a monoclonal antibody directed against the NGF receptor in basal forebrain neurons following intraventricular injection
L. Brannon Thomas, A.A. Book and J.B. Schweitzer (U.S.A.) 37

Neurobase: a general-purpose program for acquisition, storage and digital processing of transient signals using the Apple Macintosh II computer
P.K. Stys (U.S.A.) 47

Recording of simultaneous single-unit activity in the dragonfly ganglia
W.E. Faller and M.W. Luttges (U.S.A.) 55

New developments in an "expanded stick" model for coding, graphic representation and metric analysis of tracer-filled or Golgi-impregnated neurons, including spines and varicosities
M. Freire (Spain) 71

Striatal depth EEG reveals postsynaptic activity of striatal neurons following dopamine receptor stimulation and blockade
D.M. Yurek and P.K. Randall (U.S.A.) 81

Number 2 – April 1991

Research papers

In vivo characterisation of extracellular dopamine, GABA and acetylcholine from the dorsolateral striatum of awake freely moving rats by chronic microdialysis
P.G. Osborne, W.T. O'Connor, J. Kehr and U. Ungerstedt (Sweden) 93

Ultrastructural localization of blood–brain barrier-specific antibodies using immunogold-silver enhancement techniques
C.L. Farrell and W.M. Pardridge (U.S.A.) 103

Selective fura-2 loading of presynaptic terminals and nerve cell processes by local perfusion in mammalian brain slice
W.G. Regehr and D.W. Tank (U.S.A.) 111

Double-labelling with rhodamine beads and biocytin: a technique for studying corticospinal and other projection neurons in vitro
G.-F. Tseng, I. Parada and D.A. Prince (U.S.A.) 121

An enzyme-linked immunosorbent assay for myelin basic protein-specific protein methylase I
N. Rawal, W.K. Paik and S. Kim (U.S.A.) 133

A biotin-containing compound N-(2-aminoethyl)biotinamide for intracellular labeling and neuronal tracing studies: comparison with biocytin
H. Kita and W. Armstrong (U.S.A.) 141

Computer-assisted three-dimensional reconstruction of the hippocampal region based on serial sections
A. Andreasen, A.M. Drewes, J.E. Assentoft, N.E. Larsen, H. Nielsen, I.E. Holm and F.A. Geneser (Denmark) 151

Neuropeptides can interfere with the recording properties of voltammetric carbon fibre electrodes
R. Rivest and C.A. Marsden (Canada, U.K.) 161

A modified "triangular pulse" stimulator for C-fibers stimulation
F.-S. Jaw, C.-T. Yen, H.W. Tsao and H.J. Yu (Taiwan) 169

A simple method for organotypic cultures of nervous tissue
L. Stoppini, P.-A. Buchs and D. Muller (Switzerland) 173
A new method for the measurement of endogenous transmitter release in localized regions of hippocampal slices
M.-P. Roisin, J.-L. Brassart, G. Charton, V. Crepel and Y.B. Ari (France) 183

Number 3 – May 1991

Research papers
In vitro translation in a hamster brain cell-free system
G.R. Thériaul and D. Gauthier (Canada) 191
Light and electron microscopical visualization of anterogradely labelled corticospinal growth cones using a new combination of HRP staining techniques
E.A.J. Joosten (The Netherlands) 199
A simple and inexpensive slicer for preparation of brain slices
K.S. Pai, S.K. Shankar and V. Ravindranath (India) 209
A simple video position-digitizer for studying animal movement patterns
S. Ye and W.J. Bell (U.S.A.) 215
A slow intravenous infusion of N-methyl-DL-aspartate as a seizure model in the mouse
L. Singh, R.J. Oles, C.A. Vass and G.N. Woodruff (U.K.) 227
Enhancement of horseradish peroxidase histochemistry and/or uptake with radiocontrast media
S. Saporta and C.N.R. Henderson (U.S.A.) 233
A low cost computer aided design (CAD) system for 3D-reconstruction from serial sections
C. Keri and P.K. Ahnelt (Austria) 241
A method for the isolation of purified murine neuroepithelial cells from the developing mouse brain
J. Drago, M. Murphy, K.A. Bailey and P.F. Bartlett (Australia) 251
A procedure for purifying low-abundance protein components from the brain cytoskeleton-nuclear matrix fraction
K.R. Shelton, E. Klann, G. Nixon and P.M. Egle (U.S.A.) 257
